25X1A	3. The Board next considered the Fifteen Anniversary Review of Mr. who completed 15 years of Agency service on 24 September 1971. This case was originally reviewed in June 1971, and at the request of the Administrative Officer, Office of National Estimates was deferred to provide time for possible further TDY duty. As of the date
25X1A	of the June 1971 review, had completed 59 months and 14 days of verified overseas service. This case was again considered in October 1971 and was deferred, for the same reason. As of the date of this meeting,
25X1A	Mr. overseas service totals the same as that at the time of the June 1971 review. The Board recommended that, since Mr. has not per- 25X1A formed any overseas service since December 1969 and it is not planned for him to perform any in the near future, he be removed from the System. The
25X1A	Board requested that Mr. be queried as to whether he had performed any domestic service which might be qualifying under prior 25X1A to final action being taken to effect his removal.
25X1A 25X1A	4. The next case considered by the Board was the nomination of Mr. for participation in CIARDS based partially on domestic qualifying service. Mr. has completed 45 months and 13 days of verified overseas service. This case was considered at a pervious meeting and was tabled in order that some additional details regarding this service 25X1C could be secured.

purview of a government employment and due to the extreme sensitivity, he cannot use this experience or even allude to it in applying for employment out side the Agency, and he would be at a decided disadvantage in explaining the breadth of his experience during this period. He contends that all of these cases were in direct support of Agency overseas operations.

Mr. Howard Osborn appeared before the Board to discuss this case.

Mr. Osborn agreed with the Board that in this case there is not a cover problem, that there has not been personal hazard involved, and that Mr. could give sufficient details of his Agency employment in seeking outside employment. Mr. Osborn indicated that he felt that a portion, perhaps six or seven months, were involved in the use of tradecraft, involving serveillance. After further discussion with Mr. Osborn the Board indicated that, based on the facts of this case and based strictly on the guidelines given the Board and the provisions of they were inclined to rec- 25X1 ommend disapproval. The Board recommended to Mr. Osborn that perhaps,	1A in view of the sensitive nature of this service and the Director's knowledge of such, he would like to approach the Director in regard to a special approval for this particular case. Mr. Osborn agreed that he would do this. The Board, therefore, tabled the case pending the outcome of Mr. Osborn's	- discussion with the Director.
7. The meeting adjourned a 3:45 p. m.
